PRESBYTERIAN WOMEN SPRING GATHERING

MARCH 7-9, 2025
MORANCH, HUNT, TX

JOIN WOMEN FROM ALL OVER MISSION
PRESBYTERY FOR A WEEKEND OF RENEWAL, COMMUNITY AND JOY!

HOST CHURCH: SHEPHERD OF THE HILLS
KEYNOTE: REV. AMY MYHAND
MUSIC LEADER: BETH MUELLER

Our Keynote Speaker: Rev. Amy Myhand

A native Texan, Amy was born and raised in Eureka, Texas (population 297) but for the past decade, made her family's home in Dripping Springs, located just west of Austin. She also has a special affinity for the Texas Hill Country and loves to escape there any chance she gets.

She has dedicated over two decades to vocational ministry, serving in leadership roles for churches both large and small. Devoting most of her career to family ministry, she has also led in the areas of communications, adult discipleship, and missions.

In 2017, Amy felt called by the Holy Spirit to pursue ordained ministry, and fully and wholeheartedly places trust in God to use her as an instrument of reconciliation and a messenger of hope in the world. Since September of 2021, Amy has lived into this calling by serving as solo pastor of Faith Presbyterian Church in Austin.

She finds joy in her own journey by spending time with her husband of 28 years, Shayne, their three teen and young adult children, and their beloved sheep-a-doodle, Rocky. They recently moved two kids off to college and are learning how to be "almost" empty nesters.

In her precious free time, her favorite joyous pursuits are reading, listening to podcasts, trying new restaurants, attending live theatre, and connecting with others over a cup of coffee or breakfast tacos.

Our Music Leader: Beth Mueller

Beth serves Shepherd of the Hills Presbyterian Church in Austin, as the Worship Arts Director; leading music, writing liturgy and creating Sanctuary art. She is also an Enneagram instructor and author.

She has led music and worship at conferences all over the country including Presbyterian Youth Triennium, Montreat, MoRanch and many others. Beth has a deep love for communal singing and worship, especially with a bunch of ladies!

Beth lives in Wimberley with Pastor husband Rob, and near an ever growing crew of children and grandchildren. She is an avid DIYer and she and Rob are constantly engaged in some kind of home improvement project.
