About the trip:

Oklahoma City Mission Trip?

This year will be our third year of traveling to Oklahoma City. The last two years have been an incredible experience for both leaders and students and we are so excited to see what God has in store this year!

We will be partnering with Vine Community Church and the organization Hope House in Oklahoma City where students will have the opportunity to serve and learn about the city in a variety of ways. Hope House is an organization that provides housing for homeless families while they get on their feet.

How are we getting there?

We will be taking vans to Oklahoma city, which will also serve as our main transportation while on the trip. We will leave Covenant on the morning of the 18th, and return to Covenant on the afternoon of the 23rd.

Where will we be staying?

We will be staying at Hope House which has two new buildings that will not be utilized until the fall which gives us a perfect place to stay. There will be a boys house and a girls house.

What will we be eating?

Breakfast will be eaten at the houses and most days we will be packing a lunch to take to our mission site.

Dinner will be eaten out at different restaurants throughout the city.

About the trip:

What do I bring?

As we get closer to the trip, a detailed packing list will be sent out.

Who will the leaders be?

Our Mission Trip leaders will be a mixture of staff, D*Group and lay adult leaders.

We always are sure to keep a ratio of 1 adult leader for every 6 students.

What exactly will we be doing?

Throughout the week, students will be introduced to different areas of need in Oklahoma City, which are very similar to those of Austin.

We will be serving dinner in a city rescue mission, helping sort donated clothes for the homeless and rescued human trafficking victims, and much much more.

Our main coordinator Treb Praytor, who is the Lead Pastor of Vine Community Church, was a youth pastor for a number of years and has the perfect background to lead an age appropriate yet engaging trip for our middle school students.

What do you need from me?

The non-refundable deposit of $100 is due when you register, and the remaining balance is due on June 4th. We also need your attached waiver and release of liability/medical emergency form for Covenant.

All of these things can be sent to:

Covenant Presbyterian Church

ATTN: Whitney Bell

3003 Northland Drive

Austin, TX 78757

Cancellation Policy

All deposits are non-refundable.

In the unlikely event that a student should have to back out after May 22nd, your family will be responsible for the entire cost of the trip. However, if another student is found to replace their spot, you will no longer be responsible for the total cost.
